Course Overview

Magna Skills is pleased to introduce the Countering Trafficking-in-Persons Training Program, designed to equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to contribute effectively to the prevention and elimination of human trafficking. This comprehensive course addresses the complexities of trafficking in persons, exploring root causes, legal frameworks, and strategies for countering this global challenge.

Participants will gain insights into identifying and supporting victims, as well as collaborating with stakeholders to combat trafficking.

Course Outcomes

Upon completion of the Countering Trafficking-in-Persons Training Program, participants will:

1. Understand the Dynamics of Trafficking-in-Persons:
    - Explore the definitions, types, and manifestations of human trafficking.
    - Understand the socio-economic and cultural factors contributing to trafficking.
2.

Legal Frameworks and International Cooperation:

- Gain knowledge of national and international legal frameworks related to human trafficking.
- Explore the importance of cross-border collaboration in countering trafficking.

3. Victim Identification and Support:
   - Learn techniques for identifying and assisting victims of trafficking.
   - Understand the psychological and emotional needs of survivors.
4. Trafficker Profiles and Modus Operandi:
   - Analyze common tactics used by traffickers.
   - Develop strategies for profiling and investigating traffickers.
5. Prevention and Awareness Campaigns:
   - Explore proactive measures for preventing human trafficking.
   - Develop effective awareness campaigns to educate communities.
6. Collaboration and Multi-agency Approaches:
   - Understand the importance of multi-agency cooperation in countering trafficking.
   - Develop skills for effective collaboration with law enforcement, NGOs, and government agencies.
7. Rescue Operations and Victim Rehabilitation:
   - Learn about the planning and execution of rescue operations.
   - Understand the rehabilitation and reintegration processes for survivors.
8. Ethical Considerations and Self-Care:
   - Explore ethical challenges in countering trafficking.
   - Develop self-care strategies for professionals working in this challenging field.
